nute Revolution of Bandits, Availing

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, May 8.—Having Invited correspondents of leading American newspapers to be his guests, General Huerta received them with great affability at the National Palace, and made a speech, in which he described the condition of his country, as he saw it, especially giving his opinion of the rebels. He then offered them champagne and cigarettes.

Copies of the speech of the dictator reached here to-day. Huerta said, in part:

"Therefore, the government of the republic is determined to comb, and, in the leant possible time, to exterminate their revolution, whatever may be the elements upon which it counts, availing itself of the resources which it has on its side. The government of the republic has 205,000 men in the Federal army, and 33,000 men among the troops which depend upon the state governments and the ministry of gobernacion. Thus, then, the government of the republic has about 250,000 men with which to combat these bandits, who which to combat these bandits, who have no other aim than that of desolat-ing and discrediting the country.

"The sum total of the rebels is 1,509,000, supposing that all the in-habitants of the regions indicated are rebels—but they are not all rebels, for there are many counter revolutionists; this number is small when it is taken into consideration that the last census shows the total population of the coun-try to be between 15,000,000 and 16,-000,000.

CONVICTS PUT TO DEATH

Mexican Reports Execution of Men Released From Prison.

Vera Cruz, May S.—A Mexican brought into the city to-day a report that General Gustavo Maas has put to death nineteen convicts released from prison just before the Americans occupied Vera Cruz. Among the prisoners he released and armed to assist him in the defense of Vera Cruz, were many well known criminals.

Since the Americans drove the Federals out of Vera Cruz the convicts have been robbing and killing people in the region not protected by either the Mexicans or the Americans. General Maas is said to have rounded up one band of the former prisoners and executed all of its members. Mexican Reports Execution of Men Reported to Have Been Appointed Delegate to Mediation Conference. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, May 8.—It was announced late to-night on good authority that Frederick W. Lehmann, of St. Louis, solicitor-general in President Taft's Cabinet, has been appointed United States delegate to the mediation conference at Niagara Falls. One of his associates will be a justice of the United States Supreme Court, and the other will be Richard Olney, of Boston.

Coples of the speech of the dictator renched here to-day. Huerta said, in part:

"The territorial extent of the republe, it is said by statisticians, is approximately 2,000,000 square kilometers in extent.

"The revolution of three years ago which is called that of 1910, was not started by the present government. The present government, gentlemen of the press, is only a consequence; it is nothing more than a result, as mathematicians would say, of the revolution of 1910, and the rebels, who strictly are not rebels, because a rebel is so called when legally and according to the law he opposes the misrules of the constituted authorities—these rebels, I say, are those who are fighting in the small zone of Tamaulipas—in the smal

Raleigh, N. C., May 8.—The effectiveness of the section of the North Carollus search and seizure act, which requires common carriers to exhibit to citizens generally on demand their special books showing shipments and deliveries of liquors from other States into North Carollus is to be tested in an indictment just made by a Wake County grand jury against the Sesboard Air Line for refusal to submit its books to Rev. R. L. Davis, superintendent of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League. The case will come up for trial at the next term of the Superior Court.

It was early in January that Mr. Davis made the demand that was refused, Later he applied to Solicitor Norfls, who had a deputy sheriff detailed to make specific investigations as to the particular cases. This is all that the counsel for the Seaboard insists that the railroud is at liberty to do in opening books for inspection under the interstate commerce law. The State search and solizare law requires that there must be special books that can be examined at any time by any citizen instead of only by officers of the law.

Judgment to Enforce Payment of $3,000 a Year to Miss Law Promised by Late Captain Hamilton.

London, May 8 .- As a sequel to a breach of promise of marriage, Judgment was given to-day to Miss Derryle Elizabeth Law, of Atlanta, Ga., In a suit brought to enforce payment of a settlement of $3,000 a year made In her favor by the late Captain Pat-

Captain Hamilton, a British army aviator, was killed while flying at Stevenage, England, on November 6, 1912.

Miss Law is the only daughter of Mrs. M. Nathan Law, of Atlanta. She became acquainted with Captain Ham-ilton on Long Island and, shortly afterward, it was explained, accepted his proposal of marriage. Counsel for Miss Law in his opening speech de-clared that the family of Captain Hamilton, when it discovered that Miss Law was not an helress, persuaded the captain to break the engagement. Miss Law thereupon brought suit for breach of promise, and the captain, on her agreeing to postpone the wedding until the following October, settled $3,000 a year on her for life. The suit, ever was continued for trial.

Soon after the captain's death, the present suit was brought against his executors in the Chancery Court. A letter produced during the hearing was sent by Captain Hamilton's mother to Mrs. Law, and suggested that the sole object of Miss Law was to obtain

Miss Law, on the witness stand, said Miss Law, on the witness stand, sand that Captain Hamilton had told her ove rihe telephone that he wished to break off the engagement. He gave as his reason that they would have only a bucket full of debts to live on. This was the last she heard from him, and she asserted that she had never released him from his engagement.
